

ABOUT THISTLEFIELD BOOKS

Books published by Thistlefield Books, whose principal authors are Lisa and Belden Paulson, focus on themes that relate intimately to the natural world, experiments in ecology and sustainable living, and matters of spirit. They tiptoe into the past to find wisdom and lessons. They share visions to challenge and guide future generations toward what may be the most critical values for the healthy survival of our civilization. They carry readers into immediate, first-person experiences that invite sensitivity to here-and-now issues and priorities.
